A VISIT TO DANVILLE.

I visited Danville, Ky., the beautiful and hospitable city and church of which Rev. J. B. Wood is pastor, Sane day June 15th and to the best of my ability I preached for them howing that some might turn to the Lord and be saved. I saw many of my old friends B. W. B. brothers and sisters in the Lord. We shed tears of joy and gladness to have the privilege to meet each other and to worship together as we use to in the days of Rev. I Slaughter I found many and under the leadership of Rev. J. B. Christian workers: Wood, as paster and Dr. B. F. Jones Lebanon as superintendent of the Sunday-school Leban as to beau y. I do not know but seems to me from the motions that Dr. ming was agreeably surprised when opinion once more before we meet at church is destined to do more real evangelies work than any church in the state. The movement that Rev. W.vod is making in Danville I would rejoice to see the same going on in all the towns and cities in the state. I am throughly satisfied that if his work in the hurch and otherwise were known among the great and good people of the United States some kind and able soul would give him some help in his good work to encourage him to still greater things for his race, I pray that he may get timely help. I had the pleasure of meeting Pres. Shirley, one of my old school pupils, whom I use to try to teach and preach to. In an interesting conversation he carried me through Paris, France and London, England, which was a delightful pleasure for me to sit and isten to. He is a man of a great mind a fine conversationalist. May God

I saw Rev. L. H. Dodd, he is still in the gospel field; and Prof. Frye and his beautiful wife. I heard some of the brothren say his marriage has nothing to ac with his gospel preaching, for a few Sundays ago he put up one of his finest specimens in their church which we all know that he is fully able to do, Now I only have this to say, let us all live in peace and work heartly for the Lord for state Mission: foreign mission and for State University. May God cless my young brethren and give them life, light and knowledge to fulfill his holy will.
